Bray Asks For New Post At State Dept.

Associated Press

Charles W. Bray, the State Department's chief spokesman and a deputy assistant secretary of state, has asked to be reassigned as a result of Henry A. Kissinger's nomination as Secretary of State.

Bray's action is the first among high-level personnel since President Nixon announced Wednesday that William P. Rogers is resigning as Secretary of State. Mr. Nixon nominated Kissinger to succeed Rogers.

Bray, 39, is a career Foreign Service officer who was named by Rogers just last June 8 as deputy assistant secretary and special assistant for press affairs.

Previously, Bray was director of the department's press office for more than two years.

He submitted his resignation and asked for reassignment, it was learned, because he felt he and Kissinger would not be compatible.

Bray, it was understood, was more concerned about Kissinger's style and his personal approach to the job and not with the national security adviser's views on the conduct of foreign policy.

Kissinger has not made clear whether he will replace current officials with men of his own choosing. State Department officials said most high-ranking officers are presidential appointments and would not normally submit their resignations on a pro forma basis except when there is a change in the presidency.

It is understood Bray did not ask for a specific new job and will not make a decision on his future until he knows the possibilities.

Halperin Sues Kissinger and Others Over Taps

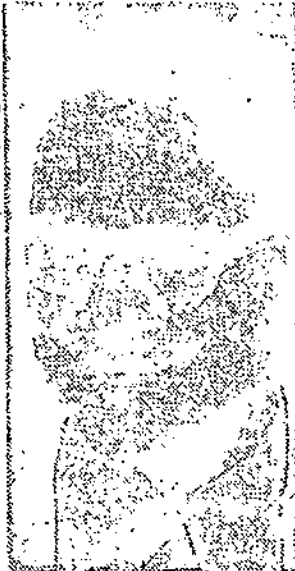

Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, June 14 — Dr. Morton H. Halperin, whose home telephone was tapped while he was working on Henry A. Kissinger's staff at the White House, filed suit today against Mr. Kissinger and other White House officials.

The suit, filed in United States District Court here, by the American Civil Liberties Union, alleged that the wiretap was on Dr. Halperin's phone for 8 to 25 months or more. He and his family are asking for damages of $100 a day from each of the defendants for every day that the telephone was tapped.

The existence of the wiretap became known during the Pentagon papers trial. Dr. Daniel Ellsberg had been a guest in the Halperin home, and calls that he made from the home were intercepted.

The suit is based on the Safe Streets Act of 1968, which prohibits wiretapping except for investigation of specified crimes and requires issuance of a warrant by a court.

Dr. Halperin, who was Mr. Kissinger's assistant from August, 1967, through January, 1969, said that he believed the tap on his phone "was a violation of our constitutional rights not authorized by any Congress-

Associated Press

sional legislator or court decision."

Speaking for his family—his wife and three children are also plaintiffs in the suit—Dr. Halperin said, "We see it as part of a larger White House effort to pry into the private lives and political beliefs of many Americans with frightening implications for civil liberties and constitutional process."

Other defendants in the suit are: John N. Mitchell, former Attorney General; H. R. Haldeman, and John D. Ehrlichman, former chief White House assistants; Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr., now Mr. Nixon's chief of staff; William O. Sullivan, who was an assistant to the late director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover; William D. Ruckelshaus, the acting director of the F.B.I., and the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company.

The Administration has said that taps were placed on the telephones of 17 or 18 Government officials and White House aides in early 1969 because of the Administration's concern over "leaks" of information to the press, particularly regarding the talks on limiting strategic arms.

The suit alleged that in the spring of 1969 Mr. Kissinger, Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Ehrlichman decided to tap the phones of Dr. Halperin and other employees of the National Security Council. The suit charged that Mr. Mitchell had ordered the taps installed.

Mr. Ruckelshaus was named as a defendant in an effort to obtain records of the taps.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 12/4/73 and 12/10/73, Major CARLOS C. OGDEN, State Director, Selective Service System, Sacramento, California, advised as follows:

OGDEN, who is a holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, stated that the Congressional Medal of Honor Society of the United States held its annual convention at Albany, Oregon, on 11/13/73. OGDEN is the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee and, therefore, presented the various resolutions suggested to the assembled group.

Among those in attendance at the convention was MITCHELL PAIGE of [redacted] Redwood City, California, Telephone [redacted]. Mr. PAIGE is a retired Colonel, U.S. Marine Corps, who received the Congressional Medal of Honor as a result of his activities in World War II. He is currently employed in the insurance business in the Palo Alto area.

Among the various resolutions presented to the convention was one concerning Secretary of State KISSINGER. The completed resolution stated, in part, the organization's desire to commend Secretary KISSINGER for his efforts in treaty making among the major powers thereby avoiding armed conflict. At the time this resolution was presented, Mr. PAIGE took the floor and made a statement, which in substance, was as follows:

J. EDGAR HOOVER of the FBI during his lifetime would never grant KISSINGER a "top secret clearance". 1974

PAIGE made other statements, all of which tended to reveal that Director HOOVER did not trust KISSINGER and considered him to be a threat to the U.S.

These remarks were noted particularly by some of the younger members of the Society, those who had been awarded the medal as a result of the Vietnam conflict. OGDEN stated he is sure that PAIGE has the best interests of the United States at heart and did not intend to be a disruptive influence in this situation. However, transactions of this Society are newsworthy and there always is a possibility that the media could use a situation of this type to give an incorrect appraisal of former Director HOOVER's actions and position.

Mr. OGDEN advised that he was calling this to the attention of the Bureau in the hope that something might be done to change PAIGE's attitude in these matters or at least to preclude his making future public statements similar to those made during the convention.

San Francisco plans to contact PAIGE and advise him that we do not "clear" anyone and for him to cease and desist making any statements, UACB, 1/2/74.

Paige reportedly made other statements tending to indicate that Mr. Hoover did not trust Dr. Kissinger and considered him to be a threat to the United States. Memorandum to Mr. Cleveland
Re: Colonel Mitchell Paige

The Bureau's relations with Dr. Kissinger have always been cordial and our files concerning him contain no information to indicate he was distrusted by Mr. Hoover. With regard to the statement attributed to Colonel Paige indicating that Mr. Hoover would never grant Dr. Kissinger a top secret clearance, the Bureau, of course, does not grant security clearances to anyone. (u)

Bureau files contain information indicating that Colonel Paige, while speaking before an anticommunist school, Project Alert, in California, in 1961, made a statement that Earl Warren, then Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, should be hanged. He subsequently apologized for having made this statement. (u) (62-106364-101)

SUBJECT: LLOYD DARDEN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
WESTERN DISTRICT

THE SOCIETY OF THE PLASTICS INDUSTRY, INC.

611 SOUTH CATALINA STREET

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

SPEECH MATTER

Mr. Darden telephonically contacted the Bureau today to request that Mr. Kelley address a luncheon gathering of the National Conference, captioned organization, on 5/10/74 in Coronado, California. He stated the group would be comprised of approximately 1400 individuals, most of whom would be plastics processors or representatives of large chemical companies servicing the plastics industry. Mr. Darden was advised by SA John C. Wagner that this matter would be brought to Mr. Kelley's attention and he would be advised of the Director's decision.

Bufiles reflect prior correspondence from Mr. Darden requesting former Acting Director Gray to address the 30th annual conference of this organization in 1973 and also to appear before the group in May of 1972. Mr. Gray declined both invitations. This group has no connection with law enforcement or the legal profession. It does not meet the guidelines previously established concerning appearances Mr. Kelley makes.

On 5/8/74, presentation of the Harry S. Truman Award for Public Service to Secretary of State Kissinger in Independence, Missouri, will take place and Mr. Kelley has indicated he may attend. He is scheduled to appear at the Brookings Institution, Washington, D. C., on 5/14/74 to discuss FBI policy and problems.

Our representative in Mexico City has provided the following background data:
~~REBU TEL MARCH 26, 1974.~~

~~ACAPULCO IS LOCATED IN THE WEST COAST STATE OF GUERRERO AND HAS FOR MANY YEARS BEEN KNOWN AS THE "LITTLE BEACH" OF MEXICO ATTRACTING THE WEALTHY AND TOURISTS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD. FOR THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS, WEALTHY MEXICANS RESIDING IN ACAPULCO AS WELL AS LOCAL BUSINESSES HAVE BEEN TARGETS OF KIDNAPINGS, EXTORTIONS, ROBBERIES AND MURDERS PERPETRATED
BY HIGHLY ORGANIZED CRIMINAL GROUPS AS WELL AS REVOLUTIONARIES
AS AN ACCESSIBLE AND EASY SOURCE OF MONEY. MANY KIDNAPINGS ARE NEVER REPORTED TO THE AUTHORITIES AS THE VICTIM'S FAMILIES PAY SIZEABLE RANSOMS AND OUT OF FEAR OF REPRISALS DO NOT REPORT THE MATTER EVEN AFTER THE SAFE RETURN OF THE VICTIM.
ALMOST WITHOUT EXCEPTION THE VICTIMS OF THESE CRIMES ARE MEXICAN~~

NATIONALS AND NOT UNITED STATES OR FOREIGN VISITORS. ACAPULCO POLICE AND STATE AUTHORITIES HAVE DEMONSTRATED A CONTINUED INABILITY TO COPE WITH THE CRIME SITUATION.

DURING LATE JANUARY, 1974, ACAPULCO VICE MAYOR AND ALTERNATE FEDERAL CONGRESSMAN VICENTE RUEDA SAUCEDO WAS KIDNAPED IN ACAPULCO BY REVOLUTIONARY GROUP CALLING ITSELF "ARMED REVOLUTIONARY FORCES" (FAR) AND TAKEN INTO A REMOTE MOUNTAIN AREA OUTSIDE ACAPULCO. RUEDA WAS RELEASED FEBRUARY 11, 1974, AFTER HIS WIFE NEGOTIATED AND PAID A THREE MILLION PESO ($240,000 U.S.) RANSOM.

IN MID-MARCH, 1974, THE EIGHTEEN YEAR OLD SON OF A WEALTHY MEXICAN FAMILY WAS KILLED IN ACAPULCO DURING AN ABORTED KIDNAP ATTEMPT. FOLLOWING THIS, A TEENAGED SON OF AN ACAPULCO LABOR LEADER WAS KIDNAPED AND A LARGE RANSOM DEMANDED. THE FAMILY IS STILL NEGOTIATING FOR THEIR SON'S RELEASE.

OUTSIDE OF ACAPULCO THE BANDIT REVOLUTIONARY GROUP HEADED BY LUCIO CABANAS BARRIENTOS OPERATES COMMITTING ROBBERIES, KIDNAPINGS OF WEALTHY RANCHERS AND AMBUSHES OF MEXICAN ARMY UNITS. CABANAS ENJOYS SUPPORT AMONG THE LARGE POOR PEASANT CLASS IN THE STATE OF GUERRERO AND HE IS ABLE TO EVADE CAPTURE

FROM THE MEXICAN ARMY NO DOUBT HAVING SOURCES WITHIN THE VARIOUS LOCAL MILITARY GARRISONS THAT KEEP HIM ADVISED OF TROOP MOVEMENTS. THERE IS NO QUESTION THAT CABANAS AND HIS MEN MOVE AT WILL IN AND OUT OF ACAPULCO.

IN JANUARY, 1974, ACAPULCO NAMED A NEW POLICE CHIEF, A THIRTY YEAR OLD LAWYER FRANCISCO DAVILA OTERO. FOR THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS, THE ACAPULCO POLICE CHIEF HAS BEEN A MILITARY MAN AND IT IS RUMORED THAT THE SELECTION OF DAVILA WAS MADE SINCE HE PERSONALLY KNEW CABANAS IN YEARS PAST AND THUS UNDERSTANDS AND CAN COPE WITH THE BANDIT-REVOLUTIONARY PROBLEM.

IN SUMMARY, THE CRIME-REVOLUTIONARY SITUATION IN AND AROUND ACAPULCO REMAINS UNCHANGED BUT FROM PAST EVENTS SUCH ACTIVITIES ARE DIRECTED AGAINST MEXICAN AND NOT FOREIGN VISITORS.

~~LEGAT WILL BE ALERT FOR ANY INFORMATION FROM ESTABLISHED SOURCES REGARDING THE PENDING VISIT TO ACAPULCO OF GOVERNOR REAGAN AND THE BUREAU WILL BE ADVISED OF ANY PERTINENT DEVELOPMENTS.~~

~~CLASSIFIED BY 100 DECLASSIFY ON APRIL 9, 1974~~

Dear Sirs HENRY KISSINGER

The works of Mr Kissinger in the past few weeks is marvelous - so much so a Anti radio announcer says "No one can suspect (or accuse) him of working with the Communies" - W C K! Like this Indeed Mr Kissinger's true agreement brings much credit due him.

The war, however, if you read French (or from English translations) was predicted by the great French Doctor Nostradamus in 1555... He died in 1565. His predictions are from 16th century to the year 3800's. Everyone has come true so far including "in 1973 a great war will begin caused by an Arab leader and will last on + off for 27 years"

A prediction on obscurity is "A leader of big great nation of the United Colonies will become a leader of Great Britain." Note in 1555 there was no United Colonies, nor any forming.

Indeed the character of any high official should be beyond reproach & sure checked out thoroughly.

To satisfy my curiosity of statements made by a man by [redacted] prisoner of War in Germany in 1940's - who escaped - he weighed 65 lbs when reached safety. Mr Kissinger is known ~~as a Jew~~ from Russia. Was he in Germany in the 1940's. JUN 10 1974 but "talk" reveals Mr Kissinger was a ~~turncoat Jew~~ in the work of the Nazi army. The hatred of all Jews makes

Dear Congressman Brademas:

A copy of the letter dated April 23, 1974, which [redacted] wrote to Congressman Earl F. Landgrebe, and forwarded by your communication of May 31, 1974, has been reviewed by this Bureau. The references by [redacted] to the allegation that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger is a Soviet agent previously appeared in the "Confidential Intelligence Report of The Herald of Freedom." (u)

I trust you will understand why it would be inappropriate for the FBI to comment or otherwise evaluate allegations made against public officials which appear in magazines or in other news media. It is important, however, to note that the allegation concerning Secretary of State Kissinger was not received by this Bureau as early as 1961 as stated by Mr. [redacted]. We first learned of this allegation when it appeared in the above-mentioned news article. (u)

Honorable Sir:

I am writing to you because I am fed up with the official conspiracy of The President of The United States and various other political oportunistas; including two United States Senators from the once sovern State of Indiana, of late an area of a Federally zoned (There are now ten zones, not 50 States) Chicago region. Funny thing I believe it is not constitutional to devide States of the United states into 10 Federal (states).. Just one more instan ce of the politicians destroying the Constitution. I have read of your voting record and I am satisfied that you vote according to your consience and out of love for our Country.. I compliment you and hope that you will keep up the hard work of oposing any legislation that will destroy our constitution.. You might ask why is this long-winded person writing to me? Quite simply because the two Senators from Indiana that are supposed to be representing the views and beliefs of the people of this Great

ENCLOSURE

State are members of the Council on Foreign Relations; In my book that means many things and all of them are bad. I know that the CFR is just another name for the people who are in the top clique that tell the Communist all over the world what to do and when where and how much. The CFR is just one arm of the international leadership that is doing its best to conquer our world. I believe that both of these men and all of the other CFR members including The President of the United States and his number one KGB Agent Henry Kissenger should be tried for Treason as outlined in the Constitution of The United States; Aiding the Enemy (The International Conspiracy, known by many names the latest of which is the Communist Party) in time of war. We are now in the largest and longest war known to man I believe it is nearly 200 years since the Clique of bankers started their war of conquest.

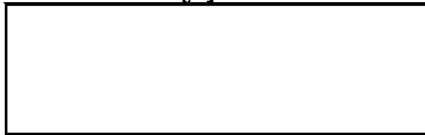

Now that you know what I believe and know to be true I will get to the point. I am at this time calling for a complete investigation Of One Henry Kissenger KGB Agent. The Truth has finally come out that Henry Kissenger was and still is a KGB Agent; the sad part of the story is that this information was given to the authorities as early as 1961. What has been done about it not a thing. Do the Communists get away with this sort of thing because they are so bright, lucky or because we have traitors in this country that hide them out aid and abet their treasonous activities? The latter is my guess. Listed in Soviet intelligence files is one Baraban of the Polish intelligence. Baraban was referred to as Bosenhard a member of the U.S. Military Intelligence stationed in Oberammergau West Germany. Under the code name of Bor an ODRA Agent by the name of Henry Kissenger sold out our country..

I contend that that Henry Kissenger and our very own Henry Kissenger CFR member and Secretary of State are one and the same.. A Communist by any other name is still a Communist. And by the same token a spy is still a spy.

If you say fine so where is the proof fine. I will send you proof. The source of this information is never wrong. That is what was said of him by the late J. Edgar Hoover in regards to unmaking spies. What can you do? Fight them at every turn while there is still time.

Sincerely,

INTELLIGENCE

REPORT of The Herald of Freedom

HENRY KISSINGER NAMED AS A SOVIET AGENT--

Aleksei Nicholaevich Romanoff, who operated under the cover name of Colonel Michal Goleniewski, has revealed with documentation the fact that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was, under a code name, a member of a secret unit of Communist intelligence.

The true identity of Aleksei as the heir to the All-Russian Imperial Throne is known to the governments of the United States, Great Britain and other countries. Nine years ago the Herald of Freedom published two issues containing documentation in support of his identity. Included in this documentation were numerous supporting statements from reliable sources. No one in government, of those who know his identity, has ever denied it.

On June 11, 1971 the New York Daily Mirror announced the exclusive publication of "REMINISCENCES AND OBSERVATIONS by H.I.H. Aleksei Nicholaevich Romanoff, the heir to All-Russian Imperial Throne, Tsarevich and Grand Duke of Russia, and head of Russian Imperial House." In introducing him as a columnist, the Daily Mirror stated: "Herman E. Kimsey, former Chief of Research & Analysis of the Headquarters of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, in an affidavit signed June 3, 1965, said, 'I am convinced, and I continue to be convinced, that the person referred to as Col. Goleniewski is in fact the Tsarevich and Grand Duke Aleksei Nicholaevich Romanoff of Russia, and son of Emperor Nicholas II of Russia.' " In his affidavit Mr. Kimsey stated that as a result of tests and the affirmative results thereof, he was completely satisfied as to the identification. He based this on fingerprint comparison to those of the Tsarevich taken during his visit in London in 1909 and later from other sources in possession of the British Government: sole prints comparisons with those of birth records and later medical records in the British Government's possession; dental chart records on file with the Late Dr. Kostrycki of Paris, France and formerly the dentist of the imperial family; anthropometrical tests; face print test comparisons; blood tests, medical records, handwriting tests, and recognition and confrontation with childhood friends and relatives.

Mr. Kimsey further stated in his affidavit that since the publication in the press of his full affidavit he had not been, either directly or indirectly, requested by the C.I.A. to refrain from publication of the above material although he offered to comply with any such request were it made, nor has the C.I.A. claimed any error on his part.

Aleksei had filed with the City Register of the City of New York important documents which established his identity. They were on microfilm, Reel #359, (page 1795 - 1937). The microfilm was illegally removed and the section dealing with Aleksei eliminated. Victor M. Rivera, City Register, confirmed in writing the criminal theft and referred it to the City's Department of Investigation. Fortunately, a duplicate microfilm was kept by the City Register in a safe place.

The highly respected British publication firm of Weidenfeld & Nicolson of London, England is soon to publish the full story of the life and memoirs of Aleksei, who under the cover name of Col. Michal Goleniewski, infiltrated Communist Intelligence in Poland. Having reached a high position, he made contact with the West and from April 1958 until December 1960 he voluntarily served the United States at great personal danger. He prepared 160 typewritten pages of secret reports and sent them through to the West. He also sent on microfilm over 5,000 pages of top secret documents concerning Soviet-satellite espionage, Polish and East German intelligence services and agencies in Western Europe, and the U.S. Army, military, economic, political, intelligence and counter-intelligence matters regarding the Soviet Union.

were 800 pages of Soviet and Polish intelligence reports which showed the results of their intelligence operations in the Free World, 80% of which were found to have come from secret Free World sources.

As a result of a particular discovery by the K.G.B., Aleksei and his wife were forced to flee to the West in January 1961. On January 12, 1961 they arrived in the United States on a military air transport plane, accompanied by Homer E. Roman of the C.I.A. From this date until December 14, 1963 (almost three full years) Aleksei briefed U.S. authorities on the reports and microfilms already sent through. He also brought with him complete data on 240 persons (their names, identifications, assignments, locations and operations) who were intelligence agents of the industrial, scientific and technical bureau of the Polish Secret Service and were located in Western Europe and the United States.

Aleksei was responsible for uncovering a long list of K.G.B. (Soviet Intelligence) and G.R.U. (Military Intelligence) agents and officers, including Soviet Colonel Kolon Molody, alias Gordon Lonsdale, and his four agents, Henry Houghton, Ethel Gee, and Peter and Helen Kroger, alias Cohen. From this case developed, through Houghton, the case of K.G.B. agent John Vassal of British Naval Intelligence.

Aleksei also disclosed the case of Col. Israel Beer, alias Bieber, who was the military adviser to the Israeli Government, as well as the case of Colonel Stig Eric Wennerstrom of Sweden, who actually was a K.G.B. general. Another case was that of George Blake, a very high British Intelligence official connected with MI-6 in London. He also supplied the information which uncovered Heinz Felfe, Hans Clemens, Fuhrmann and others in West German Intelligence who were actually working under K.G.B. orders. In Denmark there was the case of Blekinberg and in France the case of Bitonski. Firmly entrenched K.G.B. and G.R.U. networks in many parts of the Free World were not only uncovered by Aleksei, but the individuals were arrested, tried, and convicted.

The recruitment of Henry Kissinger by Soviet Intelligence reportedly goes back to World War II. Through the underground and partisan operations in Poland the Soviets had organized and arranged various intelligence and counter-intelligence networks, part of which were reorganized after the end of World War II and continue to date.

A complex, which originated with the underground and partisans and which still exists, is known under the code name of ODRA and began its own established and controlled operations from Poland after World War II. ODRA in Poland was placed under the control of Soviet Intelligence General Zelaznikoff, who headed the directorate of the Soviet Army's north group in Lignica, Poland. Its principal purpose was the infiltration and penetration of military intelligence services in the West, especially those of the British and the U.S. Under the leadership of General Zelaznikoff, who was supervised from Moscow, the local chief was Colonel Kujun. Since ODRA operated from Poland, the only representative responsible to the Polish Communist Government was Col. Wozniesiowski, who was also a Soviet officer.

In 1954 an important courier, a woman of Greek-Russian nationality, had been murdered under mysterious circumstances and important material, together with approximately $80,000 of intelligence funds, disappeared. Consequently, the chief of the group who worked with the murdered courier, Col. Kujun (code name Bayan), was ordered to Moscow for questioning. Anticipating possible liquidation, Col. Kujun shot and severely wounded himself, and was placed in a hospital of the G.Z.I. (Główny Zarząd Informacji - Polish Intelligence). Col. Wozniesiowski, chief of G.Z.I., personally conducted investigations and interrogated the wounded chief of ODRA, Col. Kujun, who eventually died in July of 1954. All of the information obtained by Col. Wozniesiowski was documented personally in a special dossier. A short time thereafter, Col. Wozniesiowski was himself arrested by order of the Polish Minister of Defense and Soviet Marshal Rokossovski. All of his official and personal papers were sealed and deposited in a safe by his deputy, Col. Skulbaszewski of the G.Z.I. (who was also a Soviet officer). Col. Wozniesiowski was accused of crimes during the Stalin era, was transferred to Moscow and subsequently sentenced to 10 years in prison. In February 1956, in connection with Col. Wozniesiowski's appeal trial and also with the activities of a special commission investigating the crimes of Beria and Stalin, the still-sealed safe of Col. Skulbaszewski was ordered to be opened in the presence of the K.G.B., and all papers and properties contained therein registered and a memorandum prepared.

Among the 1500 pages of documents were 20 hand-written pages in the Russian language by Col. Wozniesiowski concerning the interrogation of Col. Kujun. Wozniesiowski had a list of the names and code names and short data on the principal agents of ODRA. Under the code name of Baraban there was listed an individual referred to as Rosenhard, a member of the U.S. Military Intelligence headquartered in Oberammergau in West Germany. Under the code name of "Bor" and described as an agent of ODRA was U.S. Sergeant (and later Captain) Kissinger, counter-intelligence interrogator of the U.S. Army and instructor at the Military Intelligence School in Oberammergau, who was tied in with Bosenhard. The investigation memo indicated that in 1954 Kissinger was in the United States at Harvard University and having contact with the C.I.A.

It was in 1961 and 1962 that Aleksei informed the Central Intelligence Agency about Kissinger who at that time appeared to be an unimportant Harvard professor but in 1973 he brought to the attention of both the British Security Service and American Intelligence the fact that Henry Kissinger, code name "Bor," was no longer "unimportant," having become the President's National Security Adviser. The information supplied concerning Henry Kissinger could be verified and confirmed by independent sources as there was no doubt he was in touch with Communist Intelligence during his military service in Germany. Since his phenomenal rise to power in the U.S. Government, Kissinger has been accompanied during his visits behind the Iron Curtain by staff officers of intelligence or counter-intelligence of the K.G.B., which raises the question as to whether he is still in the service of the K.G.B. Kissinger's appointment as U.S. Secretary of State in spite of clandestine connections with the K.G.B. endangers not only the national security of the United States but also that of its Western allies.

The accuracy of information supplied by Aleksei (Col. Goleniewski) was substantiated during the Senate Internal Security hearings entitled "State Department Security." The committee's chief counsel questioned a witness (John Norpel, Jr.) who had been with the F.B.I. and State Department Security. He was asked, "Do you know of any information ever furnished to the U.S. Government by Goleniewski which turned out to be untrue or inaccurate." The witness answered, "I do not. No sir," and also testified that the considerable information supplied by "Col. Goleniewski" had been checked out and proved to be true in every case.

The same hearing disclosed that Chief Security Evaluator Otto Otepka was not permitted to handle the Goleniewski disclosures. It is believed this was because he would have taken action against the Americans involved in espionage and security violations in our Warsaw Embassy, uncovered as a result of "Col. Goleniewski's" information.

House Resolution 5507, 88th Congress, 1st session, referring to Aleksei under his cover name of "Col. Goleniewski," contains the following: "Has collaborated with the government in an outstanding manner and under circumstances which have involved grave personal risk. He continues to make major contributions to the national security of the United States. His primary motivation in offering to work with the government has been and remains his desire to counter the menace of Soviet Communism."

Henry Kissinger was born in Fuerth, Germany on May 27, 1923. He arrived in the U.S. on September 5, 1938 and was naturalized while in the military service by the U.S. District Court of Spartanburg, S.C. on June 25, 1943. After attending high school in New York, Kissinger worked as a shipping clerk until inducted into the army on February 26, 1943. He received his basic training at Camp Croft, S.C. and was enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Program at the University of North Carolina and Lafayette University. He served in Europe in Company "G," 335th Infantry Regiment, 84th Infantry Division as an investigator in the Counter-Intelligence Corps. He was discharged as a staff sergeant in 1946 to accept employment as a Department of the Army civilian instructor at the European Theater Intelligence School at Oberammergau, Germany, serving in this capacity for one year. Upon his return to the United States in 1947 Kissinger applied for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps. He was appointed 2nd Lt. M1 (ORC) on April 19, 1948, promoted to 1st Lt. M1 (USAR) on May 11, 1951, and on November 15, 1955 was promoted to Captain. He completed annual tours of active duty from 15 to 90 days duration in the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff G-2, U.S. Army Intelligence Center at Fort Holabird, Maryland. On March 6, 1959 in a letter addressed to the adjutant general, Kissinger indicated a desire to resign his commission because of other obligations and the conviction that he could be "of greater service in a high rank in case an emergency necessitates this step . . ."

In 1955 Kissinger was investigated by Military Intelligence because the publication Confluence, which he edited, was reportedly written from a pro-Communist point of view. Confluence was a quarterly published by the Harvard Summer School of Arts, Sciences and Education. It received financial assistance from the Ford Foundation, Richardson Foundation, and Far Eastern Foundation. Among its advisers were a number of individuals who, according to intelligence sources, had affiliations with Communist or Communist-front organizations.

Intelligence sources reported that during January and February of 1959 Kissinger visited the Federal Republic of Germany and U.S. Army installations in Europe. Arrangements for his trip were made through General Lyman Lemnitzer. In 1959 he was also a research secretary for a Council on Foreign Relations discussion group on political and strategic problems of deterrents. The group included Frank Altschul, Robert Amor, William C. Foster, Roswell Gilpatrick, Hans Morgenthau, Dean Rusk, and James Perkins.

In 1961 Kissinger was a special consultant to President Kennedy on the Berlin Crisis. He was also a consultant to the Operations Research Office, the Operations Coordinating Board, the Weapons System Evaluation Group, Psychological Strategy Board, National Security Council, and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. He has been listed as a participant in Bilderberg and Pugwash Conferences.

One of Kissinger's closest associates on the staff of the National Security Council was Helmut Sonnenfeldt, now Counselor of the State Department. According to intelligence sources, Sonnenfeldt met and became closely associated with Henry Kissinger in Germany during the period when Kissinger was in contact with Soviet Intelligence. Through Kissinger, Sonnenfeldt was made a State Department Counselor in spite of his well publicized involvement in espionage and security violations.

Another close contact of Kissinger has been Daniel Ellsberg, whom the French financial weekly Valeurs Actuelles identified as a Soviet agent who was in contact with the Soviet Embassy in Washington. Col. L. Fletcher Prouty, liaison officer for the C.I.A. for many years, identified Daniel Ellsberg as a C.I.A. agent. A little known fact about Ellsberg is that during the Kennedy Administration he participated in secret behind-the-scenes meetings in connection with the Cuban missile crisis.

Kissinger's recommendations for personnel have been as bad for the U.S. as his policy planning. When William O. Hall, former Director General of the Foreign Service, U.S. State Department, retired there was a sigh of relief in intelligence circles since Hall was a security risk who had been associated, friendly, and in contact with known Communists and Soviet espionage agents, including Alger Hiss, Harold Glasser and Virginius Frank Coe. The individual selected by Secretary Kissinger to be the new Director General was hardly an improvement. He is James Sutterlin, admitted homosexual and sex pervert who had already been declared a serious security risk by the State Department's own security office. In addition to security violations, he reportedly was compromised. Sutterlin, as Director General of the Foreign Service, has access to the most sensitive information involving our foreign policy and national security.

On Kissinger's recommendation, David Popper, a security risk, was selected to be the new U.S. Ambassador to anti-Communist Chile. Popper had entered the State Department through Alger Hiss, and was known to be a close contact of Frederick Vanderbilt Field and other important Communists and Soviet agents. Furthermore, Popper was reported to U.S. intelligence agencies as having been identified by a defector as a Soviet Intelligence operator. Louis Budenz, a former high ranking member of the Communist Party, USA, reported that top Communists had been informed that David Popper is "one of us" and should be treated accordingly.

Henry Kissinger has accomplished more for the Soviet Union than most of its top leaders. He brought about the so-called detente with the U.S.S.R. which resulted in our transferring important technology to the Russian Communists and extending a billion dollars worth of trade on credit. He was responsible for the sell-out of free China and for the detente with Communist China. One of Kissinger's greatest achievements on behalf of the Communists occurred on February 8, 1974 when he (together with Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, another security risk) pledged the return of the Canal Zone to Panama.

The anticipated claim of the State Department that Henry Kissinger was investigated by the F.B.I. and as a result was given top security clearances is meaningless. This was the same claim made in the case of Alger Hiss who received the same type of F.B.I. investigation and was also given top secret security clearances.

If we take into consideration the fact that Henry Kissinger has been a Soviet agent since World War II and has managed to become one of the most influential men in America, if not the world, it becomes easier to understand why the Nixon Administration promotes policies which give aid, comfort and support to the world Communist Conspiracy.

Re: Article entitled, "THE KISSINGER CAPER."
Subject: Who is lying?

Gentlemen:

Recently an article (see above) appeared in an issue of "The Review Of The News (reprint enclosed). And not once did the article reveal that it was fiction. It did say though that "State Henry Kissinger has been a Soviet agent," which, to us is a primed bomb!

b6 -1

Although we are in no position to possibly learn the full facts on what has occurred, is occurring or will occur regarding the contents of the "article" (which, to us -in essence- is a charge of treason), we would like to know if the author's information is correct.

We realize this is a very torrid issue, but where does the F.B.I. fit into the picture if the author is correct? Surely, due to Kissinger's assignments and appointments, the F.B.I. conducted full field investigation so that Kissinger could be confirmed. And, if the author, [redacted] has correct information -plus more- as stated in the article, the F.B.I. surely had the same information and included it in their reports to the Senate.

Something doesn't ring true to light. Assuming that the author's information is correct and assuming that the F.B.I. had included identical information -and far more- within their report, than the Senate did a great disservice to the nation by confirming Kissinger for any appointment. Of course, other assumptions could be equally bad, because it could mean a monstrous lie and cover-up has been instigated somewhere. Surely, the F.B.I. wouldn't admit that the C.F.R. (Council on Foreign Relations) now has so much power in Washington that they could squelch everybody from speaking out.

To our questions regarding the implied charges (within the "article"), we are receiving the most damnable things from members of Congress. They either refuse to answer, or they ignore our questions and give us the latest prices of eggs in Egypt, hoping this will suffice. I.e., all of a sudden, nobody, but the author, has any information about Kissinger other than that he is a "swinger," he "enjoys plane flights out of the country" and he "speaks English worse than his counterpart in Israel."

Something stinks!

If the author [redacted] and the Review Of The News are wrong, this should be brought to light -and immediately. If they are correct, then Kissinger should be tried for possible treason -and immediately.

Since we have received "egg prices" and other sundry bilge, we are writing you hoping to obtain some straight honest answers, therefore other than the questions within the body of this letter, we ask the following:

1. Regarding Kissinger, just who is lying to "We the people?"
2. Regarding Kissinger, is an F.B.I. report available to "We the people?"
3. Regarding Kissinger, were other security branches invited to testify before the Senate?
4. Regarding Kissinger, is the State Department the culprit for the "cover-up?"

Sincerely,

P.S. Regarding Kissinger, does the C.F.R. really have that much power in Washington to squelch a revelation such as [redacted] article?

*A former General in

The Kissinger Caper

by Frank A. Capell

■ A WELL-INFORMED authority on Soviet Intelligence contends that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has been a Soviet agent and that his involvement with Soviet Intelligence was made known to agencies of our government even before his rise to prominence. The former high-ranking intelligence officer who supplied this information has been responsible for uncovering a long list of K.G.B. (Soviet Intelligence) and G.R.U. (Military Intelligence) agents and officers, including Soviet Colonel Kolon Molody (alias Gordon Arnold Lonsdale) and his four agents — Henry Houghton, Ethel Gee, Peter John Kroger, and Helen Joyce Kroger. His information in the

Lonsdale case developed (through Houghton) the exposure of K.G.B. agent John Vassal of British Naval Intelligence, who for seven years turned over Top Secret information under threat of being exposed as a homosexual.

Our source also disclosed the role of Colonel Israel Beer (alias Bieber), a top military advisor to the Israeli Government, as well as that of Colonel Stig Eric Wennerström of Sweden who was actually a K.G.B. General. Another case he exposed was that of George Blake, a very high British Intelligence official connected with MI-6 in London. From the same source came information uncovering

K.G.B. agents Heinz Felfe, Hans Clemens, Fuhrmann, and others in West German Intelligence. He also exposed Blekinberg in Denmark and Bitonski in France. Firmly entrenched K.G.B. and G.R.U. networks in many parts of the Free World were not only uncovered by our source, but the Communist operatives and agents were arrested, tried, and convicted.

The recruitment of Henry Kissinger by Soviet Intelligence reportedly goes back to World War II. Through the underground and partisan operations in Poland the Soviets had organized and arranged a series of intelligence and counter-intelligence networks, some of which were reorganized after the end of World War II and continue in place at this very moment.

One such complex, known under the code name of Odra, was under the control of Soviet Intelligence General Zelanznikoff, who headed the directorate of the Soviet Army's north group in Legnica, Poland. Its principal purpose was the infiltration and penetration of Military Intelligence services in the West, especially those of Great Britain and the United States. Since Odra operated from Poland, it had a representative responsible to the Polish Communist Government. He was a Colonel Wozniesiowski, who was also a Soviet officer.

In 1954 an important courier, a woman of Greek-Russian nationality, was murdered under mysterious circumstances and important materials, together with approximately $80,000 of intelligence funds, disappeared. Colonel Kujun, chief of the group who worked with the murdered courier, was ordered to Moscow for questioning. Anticipating torture and liquidation, Kujun shot and severely wounded himself. He was placed in a hospital of the G.Z.I. (Główny Zarząd Informacji - Polish Intelligence).

Colonel Wozniesiowski, boss of G.Z.I., personally interrogated the mortally wounded chief of Odra to clarify the identities of Odra agents. All of the information obtained by Wozniesiowski was documented by him in a special dossier. A short time thereafter, the Colonel was himself arrested by order of the Polish Minister of Defense, Soviet Marshal Rokossovski. All of his official and personal papers were sealed and deposited in a safe by his deputy, also a Soviet officer. Accused of crimes during the Stalin era, Wozniesiowski was now transferred to Moscow and subsequently sentenced to ten years in prison.

In February of 1956, in connection with Colonel Wozniesiowski's appeal trial, and also in connection with the activities of a special commission investigating the crimes of Beria and Stalin, the still sealed safe of Wozniesiowski's deputy was ordered opened in the presence of top K.G.B. officers, all papers and properties were registered, and a memorandum was prepared. Our source was present when the safe was opened and personally reviewed its contents.

Among the 1,500 pages of documents were 20 hand-written pages in the Russian language by Colonel Woz-niesiensi concerning the interrogation of Colonel Kujun. Wozniesiensi had obtained a list of the names, code names, and short data on the principal agents of ODRA. Under the code name of "Baraban" was listed an individual referred to as Bosenhard, a member of U.S. Military Intelligence headquartered in Oberammergau, West Germany. Our source reports that under the code name of "Bor," and described as an agent of ODRA, was Sergeant Henry Kissinger, a U.S. Army counter-intelligence interrogator and instructor at the Military Intelligence School in Oberammergau, who was working with Bosenhard.

Our source says the investigation memo that he saw indicated that in 1954 Kissinger was in the United States at Harvard University and maintaining contact with the Central Intelligence Agency.

In 1961 and 1962, as part of a lengthy and detailed debriefing, our source informed the C.I.A. about the Kissinger matter, but at that time Kissinger appeared to him to be an unimportant Harvard professor. In 1973 our source brought these facts to the attention of both the F.B.I. and the British Security Service, observing that Henry Kissinger, code name "Bor," was no longer "unimportant," having become the President's chief National Security Advisor. He noted that the information he had long ago supplied concerning Henry Kissinger could be verified and confirmed by independent sources since, says our source, there was no doubt he was in touch with Communist Intelligence during his military service in Germany.

How responsible is this source? Is there any possibility that he could be wrong? The accuracy of other detailed information he has supplied was substantiated during the Senate Internal Security Hearings entitled "State Department Security." The Committee's chief counsel questioned an expert witness who had been with the F.B.I. and later with State Department Security. He was asked, "Do you know whether any information ever furnished to the U.S. Government by [our source] turned out to be untrue or inaccurate." The witness answered, "I do not. No, sir," and also testified that the considerable information supplied by this agent had been carefully and substantially checked and proved to be true in every case.

The source we are talking about carried the état ranks of Colonel and General in a major Communist Intelligence organization, and at the time he managed his escape was Chief of Independent Branch of Scientific & Technical Intelligence of the Department of Intelligence. He is unquestionably the genuine article, and what he says about Henry Kissinger must be given careful and thorough investigation.

Also In Our Dossier

The surface details of Kissinger's background are well known. Henry A. Kissinger was born in Fuerth, Germany, on May 27, 1923. He arrived in the United States on September 5, 1938, and was naturalized while in the military service by the U.S. District Court of Spartanburg, South Carolina, on June 25, 1943. After attending high school in New York, he worked as a shipping clerk until inducted into the Army on February 26, 1943. He received his basic training at Camp Croft, South Carolina, and was enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Program at the University of North Carolina and Lafayette University.

Kissinger served in Europe in Company "G," 335th Infantry Regiment, 84th Infantry Division, as an investigator in the Counter-Intelligence Corps. He was discharged as a Staff Sergeant in 1946 to accept employment as a Department of the Army civilian instructor at the European Theater Intelligence School at Oberammergau, Germany, and served in this capacity for one year. Upon his return to the United States in 1947, young Kissinger applied for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps, was appointed Second Lieutenant M.I. (O.R.C.) on April 19, 1948, promoted to First Lieutenant M.I. (U.S.A.R.) on May 11, 1951, and on November 15, 1955, was promoted to Captain. He completed annual tours of active duty from fifteen to ninety days duration in the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, U.S. Army Intelligence Center, Fort Holabird, Maryland. On March 6, 1959, in a letter addressed to the Adjutant General, Kissinger indicated a desire to resign his commission because of other obligations and the conviction that he could be "of greater service in a high rank in case an emergency necessitates this step"

Remember, this was March of 1959. The genius Kissinger had risen only to the rank of Reserve Captain, apparently holding on because it gave him access to certain intelligence data. But he was now a Harvard professor and director of the Harvard defense studies program. He was on his way.

To date, there was only one known blemish on his record. In 1955, Kissinger had been investigated by Military Intelligence because the publication Confluence, which he edited, was reportedly written from a pro-Communist point of view. Confluence was a quarterly published by the Harvard Summer School. It received financial assistance from the Ford Foundation, the Richardson Foundation, and the Far Eastern Foundation. Among its advisors were a number of individuals who, according to intelligence sources, had affiliated themselves with Communist or Communist Front organizations.

But 1959 was the crucial year. Intelligence sources reported that during January and February of 1959, before he resigned his Reserve commission as a Captain of Intelligence, Kissinger visited the Federal Republic of Germany and U.S. Army installations in Europe. Arrangements for his trip were made through General Lyman Lemnitzer. In 1959 he was made a research secretary for a Council on Foreign Relations discussion group on political and strategic problems of nuclear deterrents. The group included

A former General of Communist Intelligence reports that Henry Kissinger was a member of a K.G.B. group known as ODBA. Kissinger is shown at right with Chou En-lai and with Helmut Sonnenfeldt, Kissinger's counselor in charge of Red trade. Sonnenfeldt has turned over secret information to a foreign power, and security officers strongly recommended he be prosecuted under the espionage statutes. Above is William O. Hall, Kissinger's first Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service. Hall retired when it became known that he had been reported by State Department Security as a serious security risk. Kissinger replaced Hall with James Suttelin, earlier referred by State Department Security to psychiatric officers who reported him unfit to serve abroad because of his homosexual tendencies.

So meteoric was his rise that by 1961, the year our source "came in from out of the cold," Kissinger was a special consultant to President Kennedy on the Berlin Crisis. He was also a consultant to the Operations Research Office, the Operations Coordinating Board, the Weapons System Evaluation Group, Psychological Strategy Board, National Security Council, and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. He was soon listed as a participant in Bilderberg and Pugwash Conferences.

In his secret negotiations with the Communist North Vietnamese Government, for instance, Henry Kissinger used two mysterious Frenchmen as go-betweens with Hanoi. They were Raymond Aubrac and Professor Herbert Marcovich, friends of Wilfred Burchett, the Australian journalist who has been identified as a K.G.B. agent and who is frequently used by the Kremlin and Peking for high-level intelligence and diplomatic operations. Aubrac, a close personal friend of Ho Chi Minh, has been director of the U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization. The cover story is that he was introduced to Kissinger in 1967 by Marcovich, a professor at the University of Paris. Kissinger and Marcovich had become acquainted earlier at one of the Pugwash meetings organized by pro-Soviet millionaire Cyrus Eaton.

Soviet agent Burchett met secretly with Henry Kissinger on November 24, 1971, in Kissinger's Washington office.

One of Kissinger's closest associates on the staff of the National Security Council was Helmut Sonnenfeldt, now Counselor of the State Department in charge of deals with the Communists. According to intelligence sources, Sonnenfeldt met and became closely associated with Henry Kissinger in Germany during the period when Kissinger is reported by our source to have been in contact with Soviet Intelligence. Even before the Kissinger era, Sonnenfeldt was the subject of espionage investigations while he was an official of the State Department.

During the Eisenhower Administration, Helmut Sonnenfeldt was twice the subject of an espionage investigation by the F.B.I. and reported to have transmitted secret information to a foreign power. The first time the Attorney General refused to prosecute when Alger Hiss's old friend John Foster Dulles refused to make available the contents of the secret documents in question. But three former U.S. Foreign Service Officers have now come forward and testified under oath that Sonnenfeldt turned over secret information to agents of a foreign power, that he compromised U.S. codes, and that security officers strongly recommended he be prosecuted under the espionage statutes. U.S. Foreign Service Officer Steve Koczak was an eyewitness to the turning over by Sonnenfeldt of our secrets, and so testified Frank Miland, a former official of the State Department's Internal Security Division, was for over a year in charge of the surveillance on Sonnenfeldt and confirms these details.

How could Kissinger give a man with this record so important a job? Simple enough, he arranged for the Office of Security to turn over Sonnenfeldt's security files to one Jesse MacKnight before it was evaluated by the Foreign Service Board. MacKnight simply "cleared" Sonnenfeldt.

Jesse MacKnight's own security file suggests why he might do such a thing. He was the official who moved Soviet spy Judith Coplon from New York to Washington and provided her with access to the vital F.B.I. reports she stole for the Reds. He has been repeatedly named as a serious security risk and contact of Soviet Intelligence. And Jesse MacKnight has been reported to our security agencies as a Soviet Intelligence operative.

One might have expected as much. Kissinger's domination of our foreign policy has been a thing of horror from the beginning. As director of the National Security Council he arranged for the appointment of William O. Hall as Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service. State Department security officers reported that Hall had been a close associate and contact of known Communists and Soviet agents. Specifically mentioned in the security report was his close relationship with Harold Glasser, Alger Hiss, and V. Frank Coe — all publicly exposed as Communists and Soviet agents. On a number of occasions over the years, official reports have been filed concerning Hall's contacts with Soviet agents, and in 1956 the Secretary of State was formally notified that William O. Hall was considered by State Department Security to be a serious security risk. No action was taken, and Henry Kissinger arranged for Hall to be made Director General of the entire U.S. Foreign Service.

The Review Of The News blew the whistle on Hall in the fall of 1972. By December, the State Department's former chief security evaluator, Otto Otepka, had released an affidavit confirming these charges. All hell broke loose. Within a matter of months, Hall retired and (now) Secretary of State Kissinger selected James S. Sutterlin as Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service.

Sutterlin, while assigned in Germany, was known as a notorious pervert and was reported to have carried on a homosexual "affair" with Edward Kelley, who was to become the security officer of the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw during the time of the Sex and Spy Scandals when U.S. codes were compromised and American diplomatic personnel were operating freely as Soviet agents. One of these was Edward Symans, now retired on a full pension and living in Grand Rapids, Michigan, who was reported to have been a K.G.B. agent for over fifteen years; the other diplomat, Daroslav S. Vlahovich, is now reportedly stationed at Winnipeg, Canada. In fact, even the U.S. Ambassador to Poland, Jacob

Beam (later to become U.S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union), was reportedly involved with a high-ranking female agent of the K.G.B.

Authors of the 1971 German Accords which approved the concept of two Germanys, accepted the Berlin Wall, and arranged admission of Red-occupied Germany to the U.N., were Helmut Sonnenfeldt, James Sutterlin, and Henry Kissinger. And Sutterlin, as we observed, was selected by Kissinger as boss of the entire U.S. Foreign Service.

Then there is the case of Boris H. Klosson, another serious security risk, who was appointed on Kissinger's recommendation as a top-ranking political intelligence officer on the U.S. negotiating team assigned to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT). In his application for State Department employment, Boris Klosson gave as a reference an individual under investigation for pro-Soviet activities. His security record contains the report that a female Soviet agent, upon her arrival in the United States, was found to have Klosson's current name and address in her contact book.

In fact, it was Boris Klosson who, on July 11, 1961, made it possible for Lee Harvey Oswald to return with his Communist bride to the United States from the U.S.S.R., paving the way for Oswald to murder President John F. Kennedy. On behalf of the Ambassador, Klosson had signed a statement indicating that Oswald was disillusioned and ought to be permitted to return to our country. Boris Klosson even authorized the money to finance the trip for Comrade Oswald and his wife. At the time Klosson wrote the letter clearing Oswald, it was already known by the C.I.A. and our Embassy in Moscow that Lee Oswald had been on the payroll of the K.G.B. for over a year and a half and that his wife, Marina, was not only affiliated with the K.G.B. but had been raised by an uncle who was a K.G.B. Colonel.

It was also learned by intelligence personnel that while assigned to the U.S. Embassy in Moscow, Boris Klosson blocked a loyal Foreign Service Officer from sending a report to the State Department concerning espionage activities of the Soviet secret police. This important report dealt with K.G.B. operations against Americans in Russia.

When Henry Kissinger selected Klosson for the SALT team, he had access to every one of these details.

Then there is the case of David Popper, who joined the State Department on the recommendation of Alger Hiss and worked with and for Hiss. He had earlier been employed at the Foreign Policy Association as top aide to Vera Micheles Dean. Popper was affiliated with the Institute of Pacific Relations, officially cited as "an instrument of Communist policy, propaganda and military intelligence." He was a member of the editorial board of Amerasia magazine, the center of a Soviet espionage ring. A confidential source reported to a U.S. Intelligence service that Popper had long maintained connections with members of the Soviet Intelligence apparatus. A former high-ranking member of the Communist Party, U.S.A., advised a U.S. Intelligence agency that while a top Communist he had been informed: "Popper is one of us and should be treated accordingly." What is more, David Henry Popper was named to U.S. Intelligence agencies as having been identified by a defector as a Soviet Intelligence operative!

So you see David Popper should be the last man anyone but a Communist would name as U.S. Ambassador to a country where patriots had just bled and died to overthrow a Communist dictator. Yet Henry Kissinger recently appointed David Henry Popper as the new United States Ambassador to Chile. With Chile's top Communists rounded up and in jail or exile, with the Government now having no diplomatic relations with Cuba or Red China or Soviet Russia, the Communists driven underground in Chile might well think they can look for leadership to the United States Embassy!

Then there is the case of Kissinger's man Leonard Unger. He was, until the middle of last month, our Ambassador to Thailand. But he needed a new job after he engineered the recent overthrow of anti-Communist Prime Minister Thanom Kittikachorn.

Leonard Unger was a dues-paying member of the Washington Bookshop Association, the premises of which were regularly used for secret Communist Party meetings, and which was cited by the U.S. Attorney General as Communist and subversive. Scott McLeod, chief of the State Department Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs, warned the Secretary of State that Unger is a serious security risk closely associated with Communist espionage activities.

Elizabeth Bentley, a former Soviet agent, testified under oath on May 29, 1952, identifying thirty-seven Soviet agents employed in the U.S. Government. She also stated that to her knowledge there were four Soviet espionage rings operating within our government, only two of which have been openly exposed. American Intelligence sources received information from a reliable source as early as 1947 that in the State Department area of European Affairs there was another such group under Soviet control. The highly confidential report indicated that members of that group reported as being under Soviet control were Livingston Merchant, Benjamin T. Moore, Edwin M. Martin, Lawrence G. Vass, Robert Barnett, and Leonard Unger!

Now here is the clincher: On February 17, 1974, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger announced the choice of Leonard Unger to be the new United States Ambassador to the Republic of China on Taiwan! (For details see Page 55.)

The Question Raised

Henry Kissinger has accomplished more for the Soviet Union than any long list of K.G.B. agents. He brought about the so-called détente with the U.S.S.R. which resulted in our transferring important technology to the Russian Communists and the extending of a billion dollars' worth of trade on credit. He was responsible for the sellout of Free China and for the détente with Communist China, including trade and credit for such products as helicopters. So bad is the situation that a State Department security officer recently complained that he is unable to conduct his investigations because he is being kept busy full-time — escorting Chinese Communist engineers on tours of U.S. industries with secret military contracts.

Yet another of Kissinger's achievements occurred on February 7, 1974, when he pledged to give away our vital Panama Canal. One is hardly surprised to learn that U.S. Ambassador at Large Ellsworth Bunker, who cooperated with Kissinger in negotiating the surrender of U.S. sovereignty of the Canal Zone, is another security risk, a member of the radical Council on World Affairs, honorary president of the subversive Foreign Policy Association, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, trustee of the (Marxist) New School for Social Research, and formerly director of the American-Russian Institute for Cultural Relations with the Soviet Union, an organization cited as Communist and subversive by the U.S. Attorney General and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Especially damning is the fact that

on January 7, 1974, Paul Scott of the Washington News Intelligence Syndicate reported that the Soviet Ambassador in Washington, Anatoly F. Dobrynin, had let the cat out of the bag. A disclosure of the role of this amazing diplomat-agent, Mr. Scott reported, came recently when Dobrynin briefed the Communist diplomats on his frequent meetings with Kissinger. In private conversations with Iron Curtain diplomats, Ambassador Dobrynin revealed that Secretary Kissinger is serving in the Middle East crisis as negotiator for both the Soviet Union and the United States. It was an amazing revelation. In light of such an admission the appointments of Hall, Sutterlin, Klosson, Sonnenfeldt, Popper, Unger, and the others make sense, as does so much else. What better tailor to stitch together a Great Merger than a man who has the trust of of Conspirators on both sides of the Iron Curtain!

Taking into consideration the serious charge that Henry Kissinger has quite possibly been a Soviet agent since World War II — a charge made by a courageous anti-Communist operative who rose to the rank of General in Communist Intelligence — it is well past time that Congress asked why the Nixinger Administration has so consistently promoted policies which have given aid, comfort, and support to the International Communist Conspiracy. ■ ■

SUBJECT: SENATE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS;
INTERVIEW OF SA SUPERVISOR [redacted]

In accordance with prior approval Supervisor [redacted] who handles White House liaison, was interviewed by Mr. [redacted] Senate Committee on Foreign Relations staff member. [redacted] explained that the staff was attempting to "tie up loose ends" concerning its inquiry regarding Dr. Kissinger in relation to the 17 "national security wiretaps." [redacted] briefed [redacted] on his activities regarding this program which consisted primarily of delivering letters addressed to the President, Dr. Kissinger and H. R. Haldeman and their subsequent recovery by [redacted] in the latter part of 1971. Details regarding [redacted] activity have been set forth in previous memoranda in relation to his interviews by the Special Prosecutor's Office.

[redacted] mentioned two specific memoranda. The first was a memorandum setting forth a request from General Haig for the institution of wiretaps on three or four individuals. The second was a memorandum reporting a conversation between [redacted] and [redacted] concerning the White House handling the results of the wiretaps. [redacted] was advised that [redacted] has no detailed recollection of these conversations, but he is certain that the memoranda accurately reflect the contents of the conversations. In response to a question, [redacted] advised [redacted] that [redacted] had never met with or discussed with Dr. Kissinger personally any of the wiretap activity. [redacted] advised he would recontact [redacted] if he had any other questions but this seemed to take care of the matter as far as [redacted] was concerned. He did not indicate if [redacted] appearance before the Committee would be requested.

William F. Buckley Jr.:

Kissinger's Great Coup

Even a mere ten days after the event, the explosion of Henry Kissinger at Salzburg appears to have had magical effects. It has served as something of a perspective-restorer. Suddenly the daily carpet-bombings of the White House by the various committees and prosecutors seem to have lost the old B.T.U. that for weeks and months froze the figure of Richard Nixon in black.

One cannot know whether Henry Kissinger knew exactly what he was doing, but one can speculate on what he may very well have done.

On the face of it, everything he did was maladroit. He did not warn the President what exactly he intended to say. He threatened to resign at a press conference conducted abroad. He risked, by focusing on his insecurity, the security of the delicate arrangements he had labored over for months. He challenged his critics to accept his veracity when documents were already outstanding that presented a flat contradiction between his version and the FBI's version. And the next day, and a day or two after, he was clearly sulking, playing less of a public role than circumstances dictated.

WHAT HAPPENED was that the public instantly lost interest in the punctilious merits of the argument. The public suddenly saw that in some situations there is such a thing as the poetic truth. That it really did not matter who "initiated" the wiretaps, if indeed wiretaps were reasonably in order.

It saw that the Senate committee which had investigated the provenance of the wiretaps to its satisfaction was satisfied that the rough truth had been spoken. It saw a Senate committee suddenly taking account of the triviality on which American foreign policy might suddenly impale itself, and draw back sharply from the implications of it. Suddenly senators began to add their names to a testimonial to Henry Kissinger utterly unrelated to the formal questions at stake, but which had the effect of quite simply overwhelming the formal questions.

My point is that this seems to have carried over into the Watergate business. The perspective provided by Henry Kissinger appears to have rescued Nixon from the plague of the undotted i's and uncrossed t's; the epochal differences between March 17 and March 21; the question of what he intended by the use of this phrase in communicating to John Mitchell, or Bob Haldeman, or John Ehrlichman. Suddenly the Judiciary Committee appears to have found itself hard at work on the needlepoint of a vast tapestry for which the public appetite appears suddenly to have dissipated.

INERTIA, OF COURSE, will keep the project going. The lawyers and the staff and to a considerable extent the congressmen, are bound to follow out their mandate.

But their mandate — to consolidate the case against Nixon and present it to the public — requires for its plausibility a hyped-up conscience, and a jurist's devotion to verbal exactitude. I think Henry Kissinger has done more to cause that to go away than anything that has happened in the history of Watergate, and if this turns out to be the case, Richard Nixon will owe to Henry Kissinger all that he now owes him, plus his life.

Yes, the case could warm up again. There may yet be surprises that have not been leaked to the Washington Post, though such treachery by the Judiciary Committee is all but unthinkable. Perhaps in some tape or some document as yet untranscribed or undisclosed, Nixon will be detected saying something that will make his impeachment and conviction mandatory.

But at this moment his stock is rising very fast.

TO : [REDACTED]

DATE: 7-16-74

FROM : [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: SENATE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS;
REQUEST TO INTERVIEW SA SUPERVISOR
[REDACTED]

Today, 7-16-74, [REDACTED] Senate Committee on Foreign Relations staff member, called SA [REDACTED]. He advised that staff members would like to interview Supervisor [REDACTED] in connection with the Committee's inquiry into Secretary of State Kissinger's role in the wiretapping of Government officials and newsmen. Director Kelley, Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams, and Inspector [REDACTED] appeared before the Committee Members on this matter yesterday, 7-15-74. [REDACTED] was informed that the request would be brought to the attention of Mr. Kelley and we would be back in touch with him.

In this connection, Inspector [REDACTED] suggests that the request to talk to [REDACTED] is based on material furnished to the Committee which included a memo concerning a request [REDACTED] received from Alexander Haig for four additional wiretaps on behalf of the President.

RECOMMENDATION:

That approval be granted for SA [REDACTED] to be interviewed by Committee staff members and that Congressional Services Office be notified as soon as possible so that [REDACTED] may be informed.

The Honorable Clarence M. Kelley
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley:

TENN

We have received a number of letters from constituents with reference to an article by Frank A. Capell representing Secretary of State Henry Kissinger as a Soviet agent. Other articles of a similar nature have also come across my desk. A sample of this type of letter is the enclosed one dated June 24, 1974, from A. P. Thomson of Front Royal, Virginia, enclosing a copy of the American Eagle, a newspaper of the American Party.

ROUTE 2, Box 770, Front Royal, VA

These articles often allege that Mr. Kissinger has been investigated from time to time in the past with regard to his loyalty and I would appreciate any enlightenment you can give me with regard to these allegations for my own personal use or for sharing with constituents.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

William L. Scott

The information contained in your enclosure came to our attention during April, 1974. Dear Senator Scott:

You voted to confirm must mind reading what Mr.

and The Review of the News

you might think. In fact, I hardly know what I think sometimes. Anyway, up to this time no libel suits have been entered against either.

Henry Kissinger, Secretary of State of the United States, is an agent of the Soviet Union, according to a documented story by Frank A. Capell, Editor and Publisher of Herald of Freedom.

Capell says that Aleksei Nikolaevich Romanoff, who operated under the cover name of Colonel Michal Goleniewski, has revealed with documentation the fact that Kissinger was, under a code name, a member of a secret unit of Communist intelligence.

Aleksei, according to Capell, is the heir to the all-Russian Imperial Throne, Tsarevich and Grand Duke of Russia, and head of the Russian Imperial House. Now known as Colonel Michal Goleniewski, he is reportedly the son of Emperor Nicholas II of Russia.
Aleksei, under the cover name
of Colonel Michal Goleniewski, infiltrated Communist intelligence in Poland, reached a high position therein, and then made contact with the West. From April 1958 until December 1960 he voluntarily served the United States at great personal danger. He prepared 160 typewritten pages of secret reports and sent them through to the West. He also sent on microfilm more than 5,000 pages of top secret documents concerning Soviet-satellite espionage, Polish and East German intelligence services and agents in Western Europe, and the U.S.
Army-military, economic, political, intelligence and counter-intelligence matters regarding the Soviet bloc. He also furnished 800 pages of Soviet and Polish intelligence reports which showed the results of their spying operations in the Free World, 80% of which were found to have come from secret Free World sources. In other words, 80% of the information came from traitors and double-agents in the West. Aleksei himself was

TREASON OR LIBEL?

By the way, I am sending you this article on my of mine. I am sure you are one of the January, 1961.

Kissinger, Capell reports that Henry Kissinger, well-known leftist professor,
was recruited by Soviet Intelligence during World War
II when Kissinger was a U.S.
Army Sergeant (later Captain).
Aleksei reportedly told the Central Intelligence Agency about Kissinger. That's like telling Bonnie about Clyde.

Which side is the C.I.A. on?
When Kissinger (code name
"Bor") became our President's National Security Adviser, there were rumblings here by informed patriots who knew Bor had been involved with

Among Kissinger's closest male confidants have been Helmut Sonnenfeldt, now Counselor to our State Department and a man whose loyalty is questioned by many informed patriots; and Daniel Ellsberg, whom the French financial weekly *Valeurs agent. Colonel A. Fletcher Prouty, liaison officer for the C.I.A. for many years, identified Ellsberg as a C.I.A.

agent. He was also somebody's agent, participating in secret meetings involving the Cuban missile crisis.

Capell says: "Kissinger's recommendations for personnel have been as bad for the U.S. as his policy planning.
When William O. Hall, former Director General of the Foreign Service, U.S. State Department, retired there was a sigh of relief in intelligence circles since Hall was a security risk who had been associated, friendly, and in contact with known Communists and Soviet espionage agents, including Alger Hiss, Harold Glasser and Virginius Frank Coe. The individual selected by Secretary Kissinger to be the new Director General was hardly an improvement. He is James Sutterlin, admitted homosexual and sex pervert who had already been declared a serious security risk by the State Department's own security office. In addition to security violations, he reportedly was compromised.
Sutterlin, as Director General

Communist Chile, Popper had entered the State Department through Alger Hiss, and was known to be a close contact of Frederick Vanderbilt Field and other important Communists and Soviet agents. Furthermore, Popper was reported to U.S. intelligence agencies as having been identified by a defector as a Soviet intelligence operator. Louis Budenz, a former high ranking member of the Communist Party, USA, reported that top Communists had been informed that David Popper is "one of us" and should be treated accordingly.

"Henry Kissinger has accomplished more for the Soviet Union than most of its top leaders. He brought about the so-called detente with the U.S.S.R. which resulted in our transferring important technology to the Russian Communists and extending a billion dollars worth of trade on credit. He was responsible for the sell-out of free China and for the detente with Communist China. One of Kissinger's greatest achievements on behalf of the Communists occurred on February 8, 1974 when he (together with Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, another security risk) pledged the return of the Canal Zone to Panama."

By their fruits ye shall know them. Not by their political parties, the cards they carry, or their degrees and titles. By their fruits.

Either Frank Capell and his "Confidential Intelligence Report" and The Review Of The News, the nation's only conservative national weekly news magazine, which carried Capell's story on Kissinger, are guilty of slander and libel or Kissinger is a traitor.

Let us demand Congressional investigation to determine which should be prosecuted.

Or, is treason now the "In" thing, obsolete, passé? Giving aid and comfort to the enemy used to be treason.

Are the Soviets the enemy and is giving them our secrets treason?

We should re-institute public hangings for traitors. Televised.

Dear Senator Scott :

The May-June issue of "The American Eagle", official newspaper of The American Party indicates by reproduction a copy of a letter they mailed you indicating documented evidence that Henry Kissinger, Secretary of State has been a "double-agent" of The Soviet Union and a traitor.

I would think that Congress should have an open investigation session to ascertain the veracity of these charges.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

One of my constituents, [redacted] contends that Henry Kissinger was born in Germany and she asks if he was ever known by another name or if he was a card-carrying Communist.

While I very much doubt that these queries are true, I would appreciate your official response to Mrs. Rich's questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Congressman Lagomarsino:

Your letter of August 9th containing inquiries on behalf of your constituent, Mrs. [REDACTED], has been received.

b7C -3

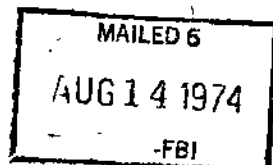

With respect to the questions she raised, it has recently come to the attention of this Bureau that information has been circulated to the effect that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has been a Soviet agent. I know of no factual basis for this allegation and I trust you will understand that it would be inappropriate for the FBI to comment further concerning allegations made against public officials which appear in newspapers, magazines or other media.

I can say, however, that it is public knowledge that Secretary Kissinger was born in Puerth, Germany.

Sincerely yours,

C. M. Kelley

Mr. Clarence Kelly, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Pennsylvania Ave., N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Director Kelly;

I am enclosing two "Letters to the Editor" which recently appeared in the Fort Myers, Fla. News Press.

Each letter makes a very direct and damaging accusation against Henry Kissinger who is currently in charge of our foreign affairs and our national security. In his position he has knowledge of and power over the most vital secrets and secret operations of our nation. Because of the length of time he has had this power he probably has more knowledge of these matters than does the president. Thus, his value--or--danger to this country depends entirely on his integrity and his devotion to the United States of America.

The charges in these two letters are so serious that if proven correct Mr. Kissinger should forthwith be transferred from Foggy Bottom to Fort Leavenworth. If the charges are untrue it would seem that the writers and publishers of these letters would be subject to immediate silencing.

It would seem that the FBI on its own and without any publicity would undertake the most searching and thorough investigation of Henry Kissinger that has ever been made on any single person. If there is the slightest question about him he should be exposed and removed at once. If, on the other hand, he is a 100% stable person and a 100% loyal, patriotic and dedicated American, the FBI should publicly and without reservation tell this to the American people. This would set to rest the fears of many people who seem to recall the very strong reservations that Director Hoover had about Henry Kissinger.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I will be most interested to hear what develops.

Kissinger Award Not Patriotic Idea

Editor, News-Press—

In a recent Mailbag letter in which I criticized the American Legion for giving its highest award to Henry Kissinger, two of the paragraphs were omitted.

I was told that I had not submitted proof; that they'd never heard of Frank A. Capell, who is a dedicated patriotic researcher, getting the truth from documented evidence.

Mr. Capell wrote that Kissinger reportedly was a Soviet agent in the K.G.B. spy ring in W.W. II while in the U.S. military service.

Of course the regular news media is not going to give us these documented facts on the conspiracy to destroy our U.S., because the United Press International, Associated Press, A.B.C., C.B.S., N.B.C., and many of the syndicated columnists, as well as radio and T.V. commentators are all controlled by the Council on Foreign Relations (C.F.R.) — "The Invisible Government" that is intent on destroying the Sovereignty of the U.S. Henry Kissinger is a member of the C.F.R.

Kissinger has also stated that he could as readily be in the employ of Russia as the U.S.A. because he is committed to a "World Community" (from an address he delivered to the United Nations General Assembly on Oct. 4, 1973 shortly after having been named Secretary of State). In other words, One World Government, whose goal is to destroy the United States and establish a world dictatorship. Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin refers to Kissinger as "OUR negotiator in the Middle East".

In 1962 the California state American Legion passed a resolution in which they declared that "the C.F.R. is subversive" and asked all patriotic Americans to inform themselves of the C.F.R. and to take all possible action to save our country from destruction at his hands.

Henry Powell, Jr., Orlando, Florida State Commander of the American Legion wrote me that he too was shocked and disgusted concerning this award and intended to let the officers know about it.

Look Around, You Yankee

Editor, News-Press—

As a Southerner of six generations standing, I beg to differ with your Gannett News Service writer from Rochester. (Sept. 22 Leisure section article).

Southerners do not normally pronounce pecan as "pea-can." We pronounce it "pea-kahn" with the accent on the "kahn." Perhaps, he only heard people who just happen to be living in the South.

If he found the route north through Georgia and the Carolinas drab and uninspiring, another time he might try going through lovely Savannah and the Sidney Lanier country; the North Carolina towns like Edenton and Chowan County Courthouse, or, take the mountain route via the Blue Ridge Parkway and Skyline Drive. And, he should really see Williamsburg, Annapolis, and Maryland's Eastern Shore.

He may even discover that all scenic areas are not north of the Mason-Dixon Line and that there's a wealth of American history in the South!

Kissinger Menaces American Attitude

Editor, News-Press—

The Manchester Union Leader, of New Hampshire, is published by William Loeb. Mr. Loeb pointed out in an editorial that his newspaper had long regarded Dr. Henry Kissinger as a menace to the United States because of his attitude in dealing with top Communist officials in the Kremlin. Mr. Loeb stated: "Sometimes, however, we have wondered if anyone could be as stupid as Dr. Kissinger SEEMS to be, busily giving away U.S. secrets and property. We have wondered if there could be something more than stupidity behind his actions. A retired U.S. diplomat and friend, a gentleman with a lifetime of experience in the foreign service, has a stronger attitude toward Dr. Kissinger. This particular diplomat is not given to talking off the top of his head or just making conversation. He once said in all seriousness to this writer, 'I believe Dr. Kissinger to be a Communist agent!'"

FBI chief worried

WASHINGTON — Many people believe that detente has meant a so-called "relaxation of tensions" between the Soviet Union and the U.S. But for FBI Director Clarence Kelley detente has been a time of increasing tensions. As a matter of fact, Kelley is very uptight about the Russians.

What's bugging the nation's No. 1 G Man is that as "tensions" have supposedly "relaxed" there has been an alarming increase in the number of foreign intelligent agents — mostly Soviet — operating in the United States.

The FBI's top cop naturally declines to say specifically how many of his men are watching suspected foreign spies, but he has revealed that a recent study shows 25 per cent of the Bureau's time is spent investigation such people and domestic subversives.

However, there are not enough FBI men to watch the spies. Ideally, Kelley says, he would like to have one agent to assign to each suspected spy. But he doesn't. What has him worried, he says, is that the gap between the number of FBI agents and foreign operatives is widening.

"We're losing ground," Kelley observes, saying that he may have to ask Congress for another 250 agents to deal with the problem.

Over the years, the number of Soviet officials in the United States has drastically increased. In testimony earlier this year, Kelley said there were, 1,468 Soviet-bloc officials in this country and a total of 3,111 officials and their families.

The number of Soviet officials alone — 943 on Feb. 1, 1974 — is 142 more than a year earlier and 240 more than four years ago. A substantial proportion of the 943 Soviet officials, Kelley says, have been identified as intelligence operatives. Hence, the Soviet potential for espionage has been greatly enhanced. The USSR personnel now here in the United States has a formidable contingent of spies.

In this connection, the opening of a Soviet consulate in San Francisco gave Moscow another base from which to operate. Previously, Soviet officials were assigned to the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C., and the United Nations in New York.

However, on June 13, 1968, a U.S.-Soviet Consular Agreement was ratified by both countries. This agreement provided for the exchange of consular sites. The Russians opened a consulate in San Francisco and we opened one in Leningrad. The Soviet consulate on the West Coast has a permanent staff of about 20 people.

The kind of thing Kelley worries about is typified by the case of Valeriy I. Markelov. Markelov, his wife and daughter arrived in New York in 1967 and he began work at the U.S. as a translator.

In the fall of 1970, he became acquainted with an engineer employed at the Gruman Aerospace Corporation on Long Island. It soon became apparent to the FBI that Markelov was interested in much more than translating Russian at the U.N. Secretariat.

Markelov had 11 separate meetings with the engineer at various New York restaurants and persistently solicited classified information about the new Navy jet fighter Grumman was developing, the F14A.

On February 14, 1972, Markelov was arrested after taking possession of classified documents relating to the plane. Evidence against him also included the fact that he had supplied the engineer with a portable copying machine and a 35 millimeter camera.

Markelov was subsequently indicted by a federal grand jury, but the indictment was dismissed and he was returned to the Soviet Union.

So, thanks to FBI Director Clarence Kelley, we have one more criterion by which to judge the success of detente. Presumably the more Russian spies there are running around in this country, the more "tensions" are being "relaxed" between our two countries. Aren't you glad the Cold War is over?

*A former General in Communist Intelligence

agent before he went to Harvard.*

The Kissinger Caper

by Frank A. Capell

■ A WELL-INFORMED authority on Soviet Intelligence contends that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has been a Soviet agent and that his involvement with Soviet Intelligence was made known to agencies of our government even before his rise to prominence. The former high-ranking intelligence officer who supplied this information has been responsible for uncovering a long list of K.G.B. (Soviet Intelligence) and G.R.U. (Military Intelligence) agents and officers, including Soviet Colonel Kolon Molody (alias Gordon Arnold Lonsdale) and his four agents — Henry Houghton, Ethel Gee, Peter John Kroger, and Helen Joyce Kroger. His information in the

Lonsdale case developed (through Houghton) the exposure of K.G.B. agent John Vassal of British Naval Intelligence, who for seven years turned over Top Secret information under threat of being exposed as a homosexual.

Our source also disclosed the role of Colonel Israel Beer (alias Bieber), a top military advisor to the Israeli Government, as well as that of Colonel Stig Eric Wennerström of Sweden who was actually a K.G.B. General. Another case he exposed was that of George Blake, a very high British Intelligence official connected with MI-6 in London. From the same source came information uncovering

K.G.B. agents Heinz Felfe, Hans Clemens, Fuhrmann, and others in West German Intelligence. He also exposed Blekinberg in Denmark and Bitonski in France. Firmly entrenched K.G.B. and G.R.U. networks in many parts of the Free World were not only uncovered by our source, but the Communist operatives and agents were arrested, tried, and convicted.

The recruitment of Henry Kissinger by Soviet Intelligence reportedly goes back to World War II. Through the underground and partisan operations in Poland the Soviets had organized and arranged a series of intelligence and counter-intelligence networks, some of which were reorganized after the end of World War II and continue in place at this very moment.

One such complex, known under the code name of ODRA, was under the control of Soviet Intelligence General Zelanznikoff, who headed the directorate of the Soviet Army's north group in Legnica, Poland. Its principal purpose was the infiltration and penetration of Military Intelligence services in the West, especially those of Great Britain and the United States. Since ODRA operated from Poland, it had a representative responsible to the Polish Communist Government. He was a Colonel Wozniesiensi, who was also a Soviet officer.

In 1954 an important courier, a woman of Greek-Russian nationality, was murdered under mysterious circumstances and important materials, together with approximately $80,000 of intelligence funds, disappeared. Colonel Kujun, chief of the group who worked with the murdered courier, was ordered to Moscow for questioning. Anticipating torture and liquidation, Kujun shot and severely wounded himself. He was placed in a hospital of the G.Z.I. (Główny Zarząd Informacji — Polish Intelligence).

Colonel Wozniesiensi, boss of G.Z.I., personally interrogated the mortally wounded chief of ODRA to clarify the identities of ODRA agents. All of the information obtained by Wozniesiensi was documented by him in a special dossier. A short time thereafter, the Colonel was himself arrested by order of the Polish Minister of Defense, Soviet Marshal Rokossovski. All of his official and personal papers were sealed and deposited in a safe by his deputy, also a Soviet officer. Accused of crimes during the Stalin era, Wozniesiensi was now transferred to Moscow and subsequently sentenced to ten years in prison.

In February of 1956, in connection with Colonel Wozniesiensi's appeal trial, and also in connection with the activities of a special commission investigating the crimes of Beria and Stalin, the still sealed safe of Wozniesiensi's deputy was ordered opened in the presence of top K.G.B. officers, all papers and properties were registered, and a memorandum was prepared. Our source was present when the safe was opened and personally reviewed its contents.

Among the 1,500 pages of documents were 20 hand-written pages in the Russian language by Colonel Woz-niesiensi concerning the interrogation of Colonel Kujun. Wozniesiensi had obtained a list of the names, code names, and short data on the principal agents of ODRA. Under the code name of "Baraban" was listed an individual referred to as Bosenhard, a member of U.S. Military Intelligence headquartered in Oberammergau, West Germany. Our source reports that under the code name of "Bor," and described as an agent of ODRA, was Sergeant Henry Kissinger, a U.S. Army counter-intelligence interrogator and instructor at the Military Intelligence School in Oberammergau, who was working with Bosenhard.

Our source says the investigation memo that he saw indicated that in 1954 Kissinger was in the United States at Harvard University and maintaining contact with the Central Intelligence Agency.

In 1961 and 1962, as part of a lengthy and detailed debriefing, our source informed the C.I.A. about the Kissinger matter, but at that time Kissinger appeared to him to be an unimportant Harvard professor. In 1973 our source brought these facts to the attention of both the F.B.I. and the British Security Service, observing that Henry Kissinger, code name "Bor," was no longer "unimportant," having become the President's chief National Security Advisor. He noted that the information he had long ago supplied concerning Henry Kissinger could be verified and confirmed by independent sources since, says our source, there was no doubt he was in touch with Communist Intelligence during his military service in Germany.

How responsible is this source? Is there any possibility that he could be wrong? The accuracy of other detailed information he has supplied was substantiated during the Senate Internal Security Hearings entitled "State Department Security." The Committee's chief counsel questioned an expert witness who had been with the F.B.I. and later with State Department Security. He was asked, "Do you know whether any information ever furnished to the U.S. Government by [our source] turned out to be untrue or inaccurate." The witness answered, "I do not. No, sir," and also testified that the considerable information supplied by this agent had been carefully and substantially checked and proved to be true in every case.

The source we are talking about carried the état ranks of Colonel and General in a major Communist Intelligence organization, and at the time he managed his escape was Chief of Independent Branch of Scientific & Technical Intelligence of the Department of Intelligence. He is unquestionably the genuine article, and what he says about Henry Kissinger must be given careful and thorough investigation.

Also In Our Dossier

The surface details of Kissinger's background are well known. Henry A. Kissinger was born in Fuerth, Germany, on May 27, 1923. He arrived in the United States on September 5, 1938, and was naturalized while in the military service by the U.S. District Court of Spartanburg, South Carolina, on June 25, 1943. After attending high school in New York, he worked as a shipping clerk until inducted into the Army on February 26, 1943. He received his basic training at Camp Croft, South Carolina, and was enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Program at the University of North Carolina and Lafayette University.

Kissinger served in Europe in Company "G," 335th Infantry Regiment, 84th Infantry Division, as an investigator in the Counter-Intelligence Corps. He was discharged as a Staff Sergeant in 1946 to accept employment as a Department of the Army civilian instructor at the European Theater Intelligence School at Oberammergau, Germany, and served in this capacity for one year. Upon his return to the United States in 1947, young Kissinger applied for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps, was appointed Second Lieutenant M.I. (O.R.C.) on April 19, 1948, promoted to First Lieutenant M.I. (U.S.A.R.) on May 11, 1951, and on November 15, 1955, was promoted to Captain. He completed annual tours of active duty from fifteen to ninety days duration in the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, U.S. Army Intelligence Center, Fort Holabird, Maryland. On March 6, 1959, in a letter addressed to the Adjutant General, Kissinger indicated a desire to resign his commission because of other obligations and the conviction that he could be "of greater

Remember, this was March of 1959. The genius Kissinger had risen only to the rank of Reserve Captain, apparently holding on because it gave him access to certain intelligence data. But he was now a Harvard professor and director of the Harvard defense studies program. He was on his way.

To date, there was only one known blemish on his record. In 1955, Kissinger had been investigated by Military Intelligence because the publication Confluence, which he edited, was reportedly written from a pro-Communist point of view. Confluence was a quarterly published by the Harvard Summer School. It received financial assistance from the Ford Foundation, the Richardson Foundation, and the Far Eastern Foundation. Among its advisors were a number of individuals who, according to intelligence sources, had affiliated themselves with Communist or Communist Front organizations.

But 1959 was the crucial year. Intelligence sources reported that during January and February of 1959, before he resigned his Reserve commission as a Captain of Intelligence, Kissinger visited the Federal Republic of Germany and U.S. Army installations in Europe. Arrangements for his trip were made through General Lyman Lemnitzer. In 1959 he was made a research secretary for a Council on Foreign Relations discussion group on political and strategic problems of nuclear deterrents. The group included

A former General of Communist intelligence reports that Henry Kissinger was a member of a K.G.B. group known as ODRA. Kissinger is shown at right with Chou En-lai and with Helmut Sonnenfeldt, Kissinger's counselor in charge of Red trade. Sonnenfeldt has turned over secret information to a foreign power, and security officers strongly recommended he be prosecuted under the espionage statutes. Above is William O. Hall, Kissinger's first Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service. Hall retired when it became known that he had been reported by State Department Security as a serious security risk. Kissinger replaced Hall with James Sutterlin, earlier referred by State Department Security to psychiatric officers who reported him unfit to serve abroad because of his homosexual tendencies.

March 20, 1974

such leaders of the ideological Left as Frank Adichol, Robert Amory, William C. Foster, Rowell Gilpatric, Hans Morgenthau, Dean Rusk, and James Perkins.

So meteoric was his rise that by 1961, the year our source "came in from out of the cold," Kissinger was a special consultant to President Kennedy on the Berlin Crisis. He was also a consultant to the Operations Research Office, the Operations Coordinating Board, the Weapons System Evaluation Group, Psychological Strategy Board, National Security Council, and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. He was soon listed as a participant in Bilderberg and Pugwash Conferences.

In his secret negotiations with the Communist North Vietnamese Government, for instance, Henry Kissinger used two mysterious Frenchmen as go-betweens with Hanoi. They were Raymond Aubrac and Professor Herbert Marcovitch, friends of Wilfred Burchett, the Australian journalist who has been identified as a K.E.B. agent and who is frequently used by the Kremlin and Peking for high-level intelligence and diplomatic operations. Aubrac, a close personal friend of Ho Chi Minh, has been director of the U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization. The cover story is that he was introduced to Kissinger in 1967 by Marcovitch, a professor at the University of Paris. Kissinger and Marcovitch had become acquainted earlier at one of the Pugwash meetings organized by pro-Soviet millionaire Cyrus Eaton.

Soviet agent Burchett met secretly with Henry Kissinger on November 24, 1971, in Kissinger's Washington office.

One of Kissinger's closest associates on the staff of the National Security Council was Helmut Sonnenfeldt, now Coordinator of the State Department in charge of trade with the Communists. According to intelligence sources, Sonnenfeldt met and became closely associated with Henry Kissinger in Germany during the period when Kissinger is reported by our source to have been in contact with Soviet intelligence. Even before the Kissinger era, Sonnenfeldt was the subject of espionage investigations while he was an official of the State Department.

During the Eisenhower Administration, Helmut Sonnenfeldt was twice the subject of an espionage investigation by the F.B.I. and reported to have transmitted secret information to a foreign power. The first time the Attorney General refused to prosecute when Alger Hiss's old friend John Foster Dulles refused to make available the contents of the secret documents in question. But three former U.S. Foreign Service Officers have now come forward and testified under oath that Sonnenfeldt turned over secret information to agents of a foreign power, that he compromised U.S. codes, and that security officers strongly recommended he be prosecuted under the espionage statutes. U.S. Foreign Service Officer Steve Koczak was an eyewitness to the turning over by Sonnenfeldt of our secrets, and so testified: Frank Niland, a former official of the State Department's Internal Security Division, was for over a year in charge of the surveillance on Sonnenfeldt and confirms these details.

How could Kissinger give a man with this record so important a job? Simple enough, he arranged for the Office of Security to turn over Sonnenfeldt's security files to one Jesse MacKnight before it was evaluated by the Foreign Service Board. MacKnight simply "cleared" Sonnenfeldt.

Jesse MacKnight's own security file suggests why he might do such a thing. He was the official who moved Soviet spy Judith Coplon from New York to Washington and provided her with access to the vital F.B.I. reports she stole for the Reds. He has been repeatedly named as a serious security risk and contact of Soviet Intelligence. And Jesse MacKnight has been reported to our security agencies as a Soviet Intelligence operative.

One might have expected as much. Kissinger's domination of our foreign policy has been a thing of horror from the beginning. As director of the National Security Council he arranged for the appointment of William O. Hall as Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service. State Department security officers reported that Hall had been a close associate and contact of known Communists and Soviet agents. Specifically mentioned in the security report was his close relationship with Harold Glasser, Alger Hiss, and V. Frank Coe — all publicly exposed as Communists and Soviet agents. On a number of occasions over the years, official reports have been filed concerning Hall's contacts with Soviet agents, and in 1956 the Secretary of State was formally notified that William O. Hall was considered by State Department Security to be a serious security risk. No action was taken, and Henry Kissinger arranged for Hall to be made Director General of the entire U.S. Foreign Service.

The Review Of The News blew the whistle on Hall in the fall of 1972. By December, the State Department's former chief security evaluator, Otto Otepka, had released an affidavit confirming these charges. All hell broke loose. Within a matter of months, Hall retired and (now) Secretary of State Kissinger selected James S. Sutterlin as Director General of the U.S. Foreign Service.

Sutterlin, while assigned in Germany, was known as a notorious pervert and was reported to have carried on a homosexual "affair" with Edward Kelley, who was to become the security officer of the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw during the time of the Sex and Spy Scandals when U.S. codes were compromised and American diplomatic personnel were operating freely as Soviet agents. One of these was Edward Symans, now retired on a full pension and living in Grand Rapids, Michigan, who was reported to have been a K.G.B. agent for over fifteen years; the other diplomat, Daroslav S. Vlahovich, is now reportedly stationed at Winnipeg, Canada. In fact, even the U.S. Ambassador to Poland, Jacob

Beam (later to become U.S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union), was reportedly involved with a high-ranking female agent of the K.G.B.

Authors of the 1971 German Accords which approved the concept of two Germanys, accepted the Berlin Wall, and arranged admission of Red-occupied Germany to the U.N., were Helmut Sonnenfeldt, James Sutterlin, and Henry Kissinger. And Sutterlin, as we observed, was selected by Kissinger as boss of the entire U.S. Foreign Service.

Then there is the case of Boris H. Klosson, another serious security risk, who was appointed on Kissinger's recommendation as a top-ranking political intelligence officer on the U.S. negotiating team assigned to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT). In his application for State Department employment, Boris Klosson gave as a reference an individual under investigation for pro-Soviet activities. His security record contains the report that a female Soviet agent, upon her arrival in the United States, was found to have Klosson's current name and address in her contact book.

In fact, it was Boris Klosson who, on July 11, 1961, made it possible for Lee Harvey Oswald to return with his Communist bride to the United States from the U.S.S.R., paving the way for Oswald to murder President John F. Kennedy. On behalf of the Ambassador, Klosson had signed a statement indicating that Oswald was disillusioned and ought to be permitted to return to our country. Boris Klosson even authorized the money to finance the trip for Comrade Oswald and his wife. At the time Klosson wrote the letter clearing Oswald, it was already known by the C.I.A. and our Embassy in Moscow that Lee Oswald had been on the payroll of the K.G.B. for over a year and a half and that his wife, Marina, was not only affiliated with the K.G.B. but had been raised by an uncle who was a K.G.B. Colonel.

It was also learned by intelligence personnel that while assigned to the U.S. Embassy in Moscow, Boris Klosson blocked a loyal Foreign Service Officer from sending a report to the State Department concerning espionage activities of the Soviet secret police. This important report dealt with K.G.B. operations against Americans in Russia.

When Henry Kissinger selected Klosson for the SALT team, he had access to every one of these details.

Then there is the case of David Popper, who joined the State Department on the recommendation of Alger Hiss and worked with and for Hiss. He had earlier been employed at the Foreign Policy Association as top aide to Vera Micheles Dean. Popper was affiliated with the Institute of Pacific Relations, officially cited as "an instrument of Communist policy, propaganda and military intelligence." He was a member of the editorial board of Amerasia magazine, the center of a Soviet espionage ring. A confidential source reported to a U.S. Intelligence service that Popper had long maintained connections with members of the Soviet Intelligence apparatus. A former high-ranking member of the Communist Party, U.S.A., advised a U.S. Intelligence agency that while a top Communist he had been informed: "Popper is one of us and should be treated accordingly." What is more, David Henry Popper was named to U.S. Intelligence agencies as having been identified by a defector as a Soviet Intelligence operative!

So you see David Popper should be the last man anyone but a Communist would name as U.S. Ambassador to a country where patriots had just bled and died to overthrow a Communist dictator. Yet Henry Kissinger recently appointed David Henry Popper as the new United States Ambassador to Chile. With Chile's top Communists rounded up and in jail or exile, with the Government now having no diplomatic relations with Cuba or Red China or Soviet Russia, the Communists driven underground in Chile might well think they can look for leadership to the United States Embassy!

Then there is the case of Kissinger's man Leonard Unger. He was, until the middle of last month, our Ambassador to Thailand. But he needed a new job after he engineered the recent overthrow of anti-Communist Prime Minister Thanom Kittikachorn.

Leonard Unger was a dues-paying member of the Washington Bookshop Association, the premises of which were regularly used for secret Communist Party meetings, and which was cited by the U.S. Attorney General as Communist and subversive. Scott McLeod, chief of the State Department Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs, warned the Secretary of State that Unger is a serious security risk closely associated with Communist espionage activities.

Elizabeth Bentley, a former Soviet agent, testified under oath on May 29, 1952, identifying thirty-seven Soviet agents employed in the U.S. Government. She also stated that to her knowledge there were four Soviet espionage rings operating within our government, only two of which have been openly exposed. American Intelligence sources received information from a reliable source as early as 1947 that in the State Department area of European Affairs there was another such group under Soviet control. The highly confidential report indicated that members of that group reported as being under Soviet control were Livingston Merchant, Benjamin T. Moore, Edwin M. Martin, Lawrence G. Vass, Robert Barnett, and Leonard Unger!

Now here is the clincher: On February 17, 1974, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger announced the choice of Leonard Unger to be the new United States Ambassador to the Republic of China on Taiwan! Such a move could hardly have been an accident.

The Question Raised

Henry Kissinger has accomplished more for the Soviet Union than any long list of K.G.B. agents. He brought about the so-called détente with the U.S.S.R. which resulted in our transferring important technology to the Russian Communists and the extending of a billion dollars' worth of trade on credit. He was responsible for the sellout of Free China and for the détente with Communist China, including trade and credit for such products as helicopters. So bad is the situation that a State Department security officer recently complained that he is unable to conduct his investigations because he is being kept busy full-time — escorting Chinese Communist engineers on tours of U.S. industries with secret military contracts.

Yet another of Kissinger's achievements occurred on February 7, 1974, when he pledged to give away our vital Panama Canal. One is hardly surprised to learn that U.S. Ambassador at Large Ellsworth Bunker, who cooperated with Kissinger in negotiating the surrender of U.S. sovereignty of the Canal Zone, is another security risk, a member of the radical Council on World Affairs, honorary president of the subversive Foreign Policy Association, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, trustee of the (Marxist) New School for Social Research, and formerly director of the American-Russian Institute for Cultural Relations with the Soviet Union, an organization cited as Communist and subversive by the U.S. Attorney General and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Especially damning is the fact that

on January 7, 1974, Paul Scott of the Washington News Intelligence Syndicate reported that the Soviet Ambassador in Washington, Anatoly F. Dobrynin, had let the cat out of the bag. A disclosure of the role of this amazing diplomat-agent, Mr. Scott reported, came recently when Dobrynin briefed the Communist diplomats on his frequent meetings with Kissinger. In private conversations with Iron Curtain diplomats, Ambassador Dobrynin revealed that Secretary Kissinger is serving in the Middle East crisis as negotiator for both the Soviet Union and the United States. It was an amazing revelation. In light of such an admission the appointments of Hall, Sutterlin, Klosson, Sonnenfeldt, Popper, Unger, and the others make sense, as does so much else. What better tailor to stitch together a Great Merger than a man who has the trust of of Conspirators on both sides of the Iron Curtain!

Taking into consideration the serious charge that Henry Kissinger has quite possibly been a Soviet agent since World War II — a charge made by a courageous anti-Communist operative who rose to the rank of General in Communist Intelligence — it is well past time that Congress asked why the Nixinger Administration has so consistently promoted policies which have given aid, comfort, and support to the International Communist Conspiracy. ■ ■

HENRY KISSINGER - SOVIET AGENT

A new book by Frank A. Capell scheduled for publication Sept. 1, 1974.

LEARN -- New and startling revelations concerning the background of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

-- How he was recruited into the Soviet Secret Intelligence (KGB) while stationed in Germany during World War II.

This information was ignored by official agencies of the U.S. Government to whom it was first given by a former high ranking officer in Communist Intelligence who was responsible for breaking up Soviet spy rings in other countries. This reliable informant names Kissinger as a member of ODRA, a Communist group first formed during World War II and still active.

READ -- How Kissinger has aided the Soviet Union, Communist China and other Communist countries at the expense of our national security and the American taxpayers.

-- How, as Secretary of State, he has placed identified Communists, subversives and serious security risks in key posts in the State Department and in the U.S. Foreign Service around the world.

-- How he carries out Nelson Rockefeller's internationalist plans.

A portion of this information was first revealed in Mr. Capell's article entitled "The Kissinger Caper" which appeared in the March 20, 1974 issue of The Review of the News. 100,000 reprints of this article have been sold.

Frank Capell has been an intelligence specialist for over thirty years and was chief of a subversive activities bureau. He has written seven books and thousands of articles, all documented by meticulous research.

On 1-4-74, U. S. Postmaster [redacted] California, was contacted concerning subject. Mr. [redacted] advised that [redacted] is an individual he refers to as "the mystery man." Approximately two years ago this Post Office began receiving letters addressed to [redacted], California. These letters came sporadically and were numerous. Gentlemen:

Honorable H. Kissinger

Our family is terribly concerned about the safety of President Ford and Dr. Kissinger in Russia. With no Vice President or Secretary of State to take over in the event that the two men were killed, deliberately or in a joint accident, we would be extremely vulnerable to enemy attack.

We hope and pray that every thing humanly possible is being done to avert this disaster. Please pass this concern on to those in authority who might be able to do something about this dangerous situation.

Director Clarence M. Kelley
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley:

My attention has been called to a letter sent to my friend Congressman John R. Rarick by the White House in response to his inquiry about charges that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger had been recruited as a member of Soviet Intelligence during World War II. It is implied that the F.B.I. found the charge to be untrue.

Since there has been some question regarding the truthfulness of statements made by the White House in this period of Mr. Nixon's Presidency, and further because my understanding has always been that the F.B.I. does not evaluate its own investigations, I hope you will be good enough to supply me with answers to some questions in my mind.

The White House letter reads in part:

"The F.B.I. conducted full field background investigations of Dr. Kissinger in 1961, 1969, and September, 1973, and concluded that the allegations referred to have no investigative merit, and that no information has been developed which would substantiate or give the slightest credence to these allegations, or reflect in any way upon Dr. Kissinger's loyalty or integrity."

Could you please tell me: (1) Did the F.B.I. conclude that the allegations had "no investigative merit"? (2) Did the F.B.I. develop no information "which would substantiate or give the slightest credence" to the charges? (3) Did the F.B.I. find nothing that would "reflect in any way upon Dr. Kissinger's loyalty and integrity"? (4) Did the F.B.I. ever investigate Dr. Kissinger's possible role as an agent of Soviet Intelligence?

Thanking you, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Your recent letter regarding Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was received on January 7th and I understand the interest and concern which prompted you to write.

Since the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government, it would be inappropriate for me to comment concerning the accuracy of a White House communication; however, I know of no factual basis for the allegation that Mr. Kissinger has been a Soviet intelligence agent.

Sincerely yours,

C. M. Kelley.

NOTE: Bufiles contain no identifiable information concerning [REDACTED]. The Bureau has received several communications in recent months regarding allegations that Secretary Kissinger has been a Soviet intelligence agent for many years. Most of these allegations have arisen in material prepared by [REDACTED] who is well known to the Bureau. [REDACTED] questions the truthfulness of statements in a White House letter to Congressman John R. Rarick of Louisiana and asked Mr. Kelley to comment concerning this letter. Rarick was reported to have been an "Exalted Cyclops" of the St. Francisville Unit of the original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Realm of Louisiana as of August, 1964. He was defeated in last September's Democratic primary runoff in Louisiana for reelection. Bureau has had frequent correspondence with Congressman Rarick (D-La.) on constituent matters.

This recommends that attached letter be forwarded to Dr. Henry A. Kissinger at the White House. (u)

By letter dated March 22, 1972, we furnished Dr. Kissinger information concerning Susan George, an American residing in Paris, France, and a well-known leftist who had contacted the North Vietnamese Mission to Paris and had advised that she had an American visitor who was writing a book concerning Dr. Kissinger, and that the visitor had been determined to be David Landau, former editor of the Harvard University undergraduate newspaper, "The Crimson." We also advised Dr. Kissinger that we were conducting inquiries to fully identify Landau. (S) (u)

Investigation has determined that Landau's full name is Mitchell David Landau and that he has been enrolled at Harvard College since 1968. He attended the National Council meeting of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) in March, 1969, at Austin, Texas, and since that time has been active in SDS affairs on the Harvard campus. He is the only person named Landau who was ever editor of "The Crimson." (u)

In referenced letter we also furnished Dr. Kissinger information which was considered to possibly relate to subject. It has been determined that this information relates to David L. Landau, a New Left activist in the Cambridge, Massachusetts, area. This is being called to Dr. Kissinger's attention. (u)

RECOMMENDATION: If you approve, attached letter will be forwarded to Dr. Kissinger at the White House. (u)
